THE NEW FOUR-DOOR FORD SEDAN

Those who have seen the new 1923 model Ford sedan are very enthusiastic about Henry's new creation. One woman said: "the new car has everything on it I have been missing ever since I began to take notice."

Warner White is right up to the minute in his stock and is taking orders nearly every day for the 1923 model. White is a natural-born salesman and is taking a great satisfaction in showing the new car to his clients and he can show you all the 1923 points in about 30 seconds—if you can't discover them yourself.

The new car has four doors, front windows that raise by turning a small crank—the back side windows being equipped with the small latch now used on the front windows of the 1922 model. The front seat is continuous, the gas container being under the entire front seats. The car is 80 pounds lighter, four inches lower and the body some eight inches longer. For the driver's convenience there is a front shield or shade.

The car can be obtained with all the latest trimmings, wire wheels if desired, patent locked steering wheel and any other thing you can name.

The new 1923 Ford can hardly be classed as a "lizzie" any longer and White says he is going to sell all he can get Henry to deliver.

If you haven't seen it take a trip to the White garage and give it the once over.

It pays to be a Courier reader—try it

ATTEND, HELP HOME TEAM WIN

Next Thursday night the debating team of the Keytesville high school meets the high school representatives from Kirksville. The Keytesville team this year is the same as last year, being composed of Misses Allie May Latham and Dorothy Richardson, and it is presumed that the Kirksville team will thoroughly understand they will have engaged in a real contest by the time the debate is over. The Keytesville team last year was very successful and were in the running right up to the last, meeting defeat at Huntsville by the Huntsville team. Last year it was generally conceded that the subject was not a debatable question—too many judges being prejudiced, and not able to give decisions on the merits of the arguments. This year it is entirely different. The question is one of the biggest confronting the American people and judges will be able to render decisions from the merit of the debating teams. The question is "Resolve, That the U. S. should own and operate the coal mines." Keytesville presents the affirmative.

It costs money to carry on these debates and it is earnestly hoped there will be a representative turnout next Thursday evening at the high school auditorium.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE U. S.

The White House, Washington, October 9, 1922. Gentlemen:—Not since the great war has the whole civilized world been so shocked and startled as during the past four weeks. The terrible and appalling tragedy which has been enacted in the Near East, leaving in its wake hundreds of thousands of shelterless, famished men, women and children makes a call to the heart of the American people which cannot be ignored. From East North, South and West have come to me evidences of the deep-seated desire of our people that something be done to give them an opportunity to crystallize their widespread sympathy into a life-saving service.

As the people of America have given, and given generously in every great crisis that has occurred in China, Russia, India, and all parts of the world, so they must give, and give a great sum of money now—millions of dollars—if the lives of these victims are to be saved. No appeal of real need from whatever part of the world has ever been made in vain to America. Very truly yours,

WARREN G. HARDING.

Dr. James L. Barton, Chairman, Near East Relief. Judge John Barton Payne, Chairman, American Red Cross.

WILSON'S BIRTHDAY TO BE CELEBRATED

The sixty-sixth birthday of Woodrow Wilson, former president of the United States, often spoken of in the past two years as the sick man on "S" Street, will be generally observed throughout the country on December 28, the day to be known as Woodrow Wilson Day. A number of dinners and other affairs have been announced in various sections of Missouri in honor of the occasion.

J. Lionberger Davis, Chairman for Missouri of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, has received a telegram from Franklin Roosevelt, former candidate for vice-president; Cleveland H. Dodge, Col. Edward M. House, Henry Morgenthau, Frank L. Polk and Hamilton Holt, with reference to observance of the day.

"December 28 Mr. Wilson's sixty-sixth birthday to be celebrated throughout the land as Woodrow Wilson Day. Will mark completion of Foundation's endowment. Please arrange with local chairman to hold dinners or luncheons throughout your state, each meeting to draft telegram of birthday greetings to be sent to Mr. Wilson. It is fitting that national demonstration should mark close of Foundation's successful efforts."

Immediate contributions are being asked for in a supplemental effort to make up an additional $15,000 in Missouri, to be raised, if possible, by December 28. Contributions are to be sent to Rolla Wells, Treasurer, 1220 Federal Reserve Bank Building, St. Louis. In the former campaign Missouri contributed $25,000. The total amount to be raised is $1,000,000 of which over $700,000 has already been subscribed. The money will be invested in Government bonds, the income from which will be used each year to reward meritorious service in accordance with the ideals of Woodrow Wilson.

The first of four concerts for the benefit of the Keytesville band will be given Tuesday, Jan. 2 at the Court House. Program next week.

FARM NOTES

New Executive Committee Organizes

The new appointed Executive Committee of the Chariton County Farm Bureau met at Keytesville, Monday, December 18th, with all members present except one. The officers for the Chariton County Farm Bureau for 1923 are as follows: President, Will Richards, Secretary and Treasurer, W. R. Heckler, Vice President, C. W. Garhart. The other members of the board are J. S. Littrell, Fred Lamb, Freeman Kincaid, and E. H. Stoner.

The Committee renewed the contract for another year with the present County Agent, R. D. Jay. The Committee feel that the Farm Bureau in Chariton County is on better financial basis than they have ever been and we can look forward to 1923 with hope for the accomplishment of many things worth while.

Dairy Meetings

Several meetings are scheduled every night this week at several points in the County where we are discussing many points in connection with the selection, care and feeding of dairy cows for milk production. The meeting Thursday night will be at Westville, and Friday night at Bynumville. Mr. Harcourt, who is with me is a dairy specialist, well worthy of the attention of all farmers interested in any way in improving dairy conditions. He has with him a stereopticon lantern and a set of very interesting slides showing many phases of the dairy industry.

Clover and Prosperity

Prosperity nearly always follows good clover. We have decided to hold two all day meetings on the above subject, one at Salisbury for the east half and the other at Mendon for the west half. These meetings will be held January 9th and 10th. The sessions will begin at 10 a. m. and will close at 4 p. m. at each of the two places. We hope that all farmers in the County who are interested in keeping up the soil fertility will plan to be present at the forenoon and afternoon sessions of these meetings. It is very important that you attend the forenoon session in order to better understand what will be presented in the afternoon. Be sure to mark these dates in your note book and plan now to get up early and bed the stock and feed the hens and curdy the hogs so they will get along while you are in attendance at these meetings. More information will be given out at a later date.
